2017 Mentoring Programs

In 2017 Hear For You is offering you the opportunity to pick as many programs that you are interested in or would like to be involved with. Fees for each of these programs will display the NDIS fee (full price) and the early bird up-front payment fee.

For those who are not registered on the NDIS or are suffering financial hardship, we have our Community Fundraising program to help cover program costs. However this is not guaranteed for all participants.

Primary2Secondary – Year 7 Session

This is designed for the deaf or hearing impaired teenager who has just started Year 7 this year. Hear For You is offering a fun filled and informative session for half a day with guest speakers, Mentors and a Parents Session.

We provide information on on Survival, Tips & Tricks for High School and it is a fantastic opportunity for deaf teenagers and parents to meet others in the same situation.

When: Sunday 26th March: 9.30am-1pm

Where: Western Australian Foundation for Deaf Children - Cottesloe

NDIS Hours required	4 hours
Enrolment Fee	$25

We are interested in enrolling in this program

The Year 7 – 2017 is subsidized by the Western Australia Foundation for Deaf Children

Rock My World Sessions

When: Two of the most popular picked session will be held in April 2017

Where: Mostly in Perth and surrounds

These are special one-day sessions focusing on an area of interest or topic for the participant. It includes a short mentoring session by mentors and guest presenters at the end of the day around the workshop theme.

Please choose which Rock My World Session you would be interested in enrolling in this year:

- Perth Concert Hall to meet the musicians and their support team
- Perth Glory meet players and see how it works behind the scenes
- Perth Wildcats experience and behind the scenes
- Peel Thunder Football Club – see how a footy club operates and prepares

Please select as many sessions you are definitely interested in enrolling for. However only two of the most popular will be offered this year.

Fees per Rock My World Session:

NDIS Hours required	7 hours for each Rock My World Session (unless advised)
Enrolment Fee	$50 each session

The Rock My World program is subsidized by the Western Australian Foundation for Deaf Children

Life Goal and Skills Weekend Blast (Perth)

This special 2 day program is designed based on feedback from mentees and their families over the past two years wanting something all on one action packed mentoring weekend. We also learned that one weekend can be much easier, especially if you have to travel from afar.

A shortened version of the Life Goals & Skills program designed to ensure that we focus on the main issues that you want to cover. The topics and subjects are selected from a list of issues by the deaf teenagers (participant) and their parents, then Hear For You will conduct a two day weekend session in Perth on one weekend for all mentees. Mentoring includes both individual, small group, and peer to peer.

When: Saturday 6th and Sunday 7th May 2017

Time: Saturday – 10.30am-4.30pm & Sunday 9am to 2.30pm

Where: Western Australian Foundation for Deaf Children - Cottesloe

NDIS Hours required	15 hours inclusive of one blast weekend
Enrolment Fee	$150

- We are interested in enrolling in this program

The weekend is subsidized by the support of the Western Australian Foundation for Deaf Children.
