2017 Mentoring Programs

In 2017 Hear For You is offering you the opportunity to pick as many programs that you are interested in or would like to be involved with. Fees for each of these programs will display the NDIS fee (full price) and the early bird up-front payment fee.

For those who are not registered on the NDIS or are suffering financial hardship, we have our Community Fundraising program to help cover program costs. However this is not guaranteed for all participants.

Primary2Secondary – Year 7 Session

This is designed for the deaf or hearing impaired teenager who has just started Year 7 this year. Hear For You is offering a fun filled and informative session for half a day with guest speakers, Mentors and a Parents Session.

We provide information on Survival, Tips & Tricks for High School and it is a fantastic opportunity for deaf teenagers and parents to meet others in the same situation.

When: 1st April 2017 10am-1pm

Where: Brisbane – Griffith University Nathan Campus

NDIS Hours required	3-4 hours
Non-NDIS participants upfront payment Early Bird fee	$50

We are interested in enrolling in this program

Rock My World Sessions

When: Between March & July 2017

Where: Mostly in Brisbane and surrounds

These are special one-day sessions focusing on an area of interest or topic for the participant. It includes a short mentoring session by mentors and guest presenters at the end of the day around the workshop theme.

Please choose which Rock My World Session you would be interested in enrolling in this year:

- Coffee/Café Champion
- Sports Club Backroom
- Resilience and Bullying Tactics

Please select as many sessions you are definitely interested in enrolling for.

Fees per Rock My World Session:

NDIS Hours required	7 hours for each Rock My World Session (unless advised) - $500
Non-NDIS participants Early Bird fee	$380 per session

Life Goals and Skills Blast for South East QLD

These range from Teamwork / Leadership / School subject choices / multi-class tactics / Careers / Casual Work / Friendships / making new ones / Drama / Technology / Social Media safety / Communication / Conflict Resolution / Identity / Deaf teen issues / Confidence. Mentoring includes both individual, small group, and peer to peer.

Location: Brisbane – Griffith University Nathan Campus

Enrolment deadline – 30 June 2017

Fees for the Life Goals & Skills Program:

NDIS Hours required	15 hours inclusive of all sessions = $1,000
Non-NDIS participants Early Bird fee	$800

- I am interested in attending the Life Goals & Skills Blast 2017

Life Goal and Skills Weekend Blast (Central North QLD)

This special 2-day program is for major rural country QLD regions which have had the NDIS rollout implemented.

A shortened version of the Life Goals & Skills program designed for Rural and Regional Australia. The topics and subjects are selected from a list of issues by the deaf teenagers (participant) and their parents, then Hear For You will conduct a two day weekend session at the closest rural/regional location for all mentees. Mentoring includes both individual, small group, and peer to peer.

I am keen to attend the Rockhampton weekend

NDIS Hours required	15 hours inclusive of one blast weekend = $1,000
Non-NDIS participants Early Bird fee	$800

Prices are inclusive of the actual mentoring sessions and required administration for that weekend only.
